HP 200LX

The HP 200LX

Palmtop PC

Designed for people who need to travel light ... who are on the job even when not at their desks ... and who perform best when they stay in touch. The HP Palmtop PC offers you the Power to Organise your time, money and information resources. • Use PC Power to organise your personal and business expenses on the go. Keep you on schedule with your appointments and do list. Stay in contact with a quick access phonebook, or check world time to know when to call internationally. • Compute the most sophisticated business calculations with a few simple keystrokes. • Manage your information resources. Edit a quick memo, create your customised database or graph your latest sales figures in Lotus 123. Open built-in DOS applications with a single keystroke, or add your favourite DOS programs from your desktop PC. Use the built-in infra red interface for seamless access to all your desktop resources. Large external storage of upto 20MB flash cards available from HP. • Connect and stay in touch through devices such as wireless messaging receivers and transceivers, and fax modems, and the built-in cc:Mail. • You'll stay in charge anytime, anywhere ... with the most complete personal information management software.
