Software License Agreement

Mathematica, Inc. retains the ownership of this copy of the software. This copy is licensed to you for use under the following conditions:

Permitted Uses/You May:

Use the software on any compatible computer, provided the software is used on only one computer and by one user at a time.

Prohibited Uses/You May Not:

Make copies of the documentation or the program disk, or back up program disk, except as described in documentation.

Distribute, rent, sub-license, or lease the software or documentation.

Alter, modify, or adapt the software or documentation, including, but not limited to, translating, decompiling, disassembling, or creating derivative works.

This License and your right to use the software automatically terminate if you fail to comply with any provision of this License Agreement.

Mathematica, Inc. Limited Warranty

Mathematica, Inc. warrants that the program will substantially conform to the published specifications and to the documentation, provided that it is used on the computer hardware and with the operating system for which it was designed. Mathematica, Inc. also warrants that the magnetic media on which the program is distributed and the documentation are free from defects in materials and workmanship. Mathematica, Inc. will replace at no charge, provided you return the item with date proof of payment to Mathematica, Inc. within 90 days of the date of delivery. If Mathematica, Inc. is unable to replace defective media or documentation or correct substantial program errors, Mathematica, Inc. will refund the license fee. These are your sole remedies for any breach of warranty.

Except as specifically provided above, Mathematica, Inc. makes no warranty or representation, either express or implied, with respect to this program or documentation, including their quality, performance, merchantability, or fitness for a particular purpose.

Because programs are inherently complex and may not be completely free of errors, you are advised to validate your work. In no event will Mathematica, Inc. be liable for direct, indirect, special, incidental, or consequential damages arising out of the use of or inability to use the program or documentation, even if advised of the possibility of such damages. Specifically, Mathematica, Inc. is not responsible for any costs including, but not limited to, those incurred as result of lost profits or revenue, loss of use of the computer program, loss of data, the costs of recovering such programs or data, the cost of any substitute program, claims by third parties, or for other similar costs. In no case shall Mathematica, Inc.'s liability exceed the amount of the license fee.

The warranty and remedies set forth above are exclusive and in lieu of all others, oral or written, express or implied. No Mathematica, Inc. dealer, distributor, agent, or employee is authorized to make any modification or addition to this warranty.

Some states and countries do not allow the exclusion or limitation of implied warranties or limitation of liability for incidental or consequential damages, so the above limitation or exclusion may not apply to you. This warranty does not affect the statutory rights of a consumer outside of the United States.

General

Mathematica, Inc. retains all rights not expressly granted. Nothing in this License Agreement constitutes a waiver of Mathematica, Inc.'s rights under the U.S. copyright laws or any other Federal or State law.

You must fill out and return the Warranty Registration Card to be eligible for customer support and service.

Should you have any questions concerning this Agreement, write to Information and Warranty, Mathematica, Inc. 402 South Kentucky Avenue, Lakeland, Florida 33801.
